Fight Was To Take Place in Chicago December 13

CHICAGO, Dec. 13 .- When featherweight Joe Gans step into the padded ring at Tattersall's tonight to do battle for six rounds, probably the biggest crowd that ever gathered around a ringside in the west will be present Hundreds of sporting men from New York, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Detroit, the temporary disbanding of the Iolani arrived today to see the handicap batagain in the new year and add to their and today it was impossible to secure good seat except from ticket scalp-pers, some of whom reaped a harvest. Every precaution has been taken by the fight promoters to prevent the threatened police interference with the

Both McGovern and Gans have been placed under arrest, and are constantly accompanied by constables, and it is said that arrangements have been made for the presence of a justice of the peace at the ringside tonight, in case the fighters were arrested, to release them promptly on bonds, and the fight promoters have given out as-surances that the men will step into the ring at 10:30 o'clock.

As a further precaution, McGovern, on his arrival, will be spirited away until weighing in at 7 o'clock. Gans, too, kept out of the way during the day, and only did enough work to keep himself within the limit of 133

Betting is heavy on the fight, with McGovern the favorite at 2 to 1, that he will stick the route and thus win.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13 .- McGovern arrived here this afternoon from his training quarters in Milwaukee, and was driven to a hotel, where a constable read a warrant to him and nominally became his bodyguard. McGovmittee composed of some of the most prominent ministers of the city, including Revs. N. W. Thomas, Frank Talmadge and William E. Lawrence. called on Mayor Harrison this afternoon and protested against tonight's fight, asking the mayor that his permit be re-called. Mayor Harrison refused to interfere.
